

Whisper this rhyme. Listen out for Quarrelsome Queen's 'qu...' sound as you say the words.

If you're keen like the Queen
you'll be quick in her quiz.
Answer questions quick, quickly,
and you'll be a real whiz!

How many friends are doing the quiz with Quarrelsome Queen?

Write the number in the box.

Note to Parents: Saying alliterative rhymes is a good way of playing with language and developing the ability to listen carefully for a recurring sound at the start of a word.

